

Kindergarten News-Room I

March 1, 2018

This Week:

- We explored our Language Arts Theme: “The Very Hungry Caterpillar” and “Dr. Seuss”

- Stories we read for our theme included:
  - “The Very Hungry Caterpillar”
  - “Butterflies”
  - “The Cat in the Hat”
  - “One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish”
  - “Fox in Sox” (Mrs. Hampton’s Class)
- We discussed with our learning buddies what we know about caterpillars.
- For Dr. Seuss week, we read books and discussed characters, setting, problem and solutions, and rhyming.

- Sight Word: or

- We reviewed all of site words through interactive class activities.

- Writing:

- As a class, we chose what activity we wanted to write about for our February page of our memory book. We sounded out words to create a complete sentence for this memory.
- We are becoming authors of our very own “The Very Hungry Caterpillar,” and we published the first page of our book!

- Art:

- We illustrated our Happy Kindergarten page with things that we accomplished during the month of February.
- We created our cover page for “The Very Hungry Caterpillar” book by making a caterpillar!

- Math:

- This week we started a new math concept of decomposing numbers 11-15. We learned that we can “break apart” number using math cubes, dots on our whiteboards, or even our fingers! (example: 18 is 10 and 8 more)
